

HIGHLIGHTS

October 2008

Brochure 2009

With winter fast approaching, there's nothing better for the spirits than planning for next year's holidays. 2009 sees High Point Holidays offer a range of exciting new walks in rural France and the French Alps. We have been busy seeking out some stunning undiscovered regions where great walks and a warm and generous welcome go hand-in-hand. If you would like a copy of our new brochure, please contact us by telephone or by sending us an e-mail. contact@highpointholidays.co.uk

Hidden France

Why not discover the Queyras in the Southern Alps, with its diverse landscapes of alpine meadows, rocky deserts and rugged peaks. Accessible high mountain cols and summits make this sunny region a paradise for mountain walkers. Info Another new destination for 2009 is the Vanoise National Park in the Alps. A series of stunning walks of moderate/challenging difficulty skirt beneath soaring glaciated peaks, making this holiday ideal for those mountain walkers looking for a first alpine experience. Info Or, if you're looking for something more gentle, why not try the Tarn and Aveyron in south west France, where hundreds of historic hill-top towns overlook dramatic gorges. Info

Queyras—an undiscovered alpine paradise

Genuine Experience: We are unwavering in our commitment to bring you holidays that offer a genuine local experience. Small, intimate guest houses, local delicacies and above all, a warm and generous welcome will underpin your stay. In addition, our guided walks will involve only small groups, creating a friendly and informal atmosphere, where you'll feel right at home. Find out more

African adventure treks

In addition, we have teamed up with like minded local guiding companies in Morocco and Tanzania to bring you two classic treks: Toubkal High Atlas Adventure in Morocco and Kilimanjaro, the roof of Africa by the quieter and very scenic Machame route. Info

Rendez-vous: www.highpointholidays.co.uk

To stop receiving Highlights click here
If you have any questions please send us an e-mail at contact@highpointholidays.co.uk or phone 01747 858 229